EL MENSAJERO

A ministry of the Dominican Friars, St. Albert the Great Province

Third Sunday of Lent
March 20, 2022

Elizabeth Barret Browning wrote, “Earth’s crammed with heaven, And every common bush afire with God, But only he who sees, takes off his shoes; The rest sit round it and pluck blackberries.” We are challenged today to experience the mystery of God with the image of Moses and the burning bush—a God who answers all questions in a simple, bold manner. Like an exasperated parent telling a child “Because I said so,” God tells Moses “I am who I am,” and “tell the Israelites I AM sent me to you.”

God may as well have said, “Save all your questions, and trust in me. Quit being so stubborn.” The passage from First Corinthians reminds us what happened when the Israelites did not listen to God’s message. They grumbled and complained because manna from heaven was not enough! Lastly, an annoyed Jesus calls on his listeners to repent and uses a difficult parable to stress transformation.

A Continuous Lent

In the Rule of Saint Benedict, the monks are told that their lives should be a “continuous Lent.” At first, this may sound like a negative, difficult thing, or entirely depressing. Rather, it is simp-

Welcome to the New Reality!

During the past two years so much in our world has changed, in our society, in our neighborhood, in our families—and in our Church. We are having to adjust to new practices and patterns of living. The COVID virus will be part of our future for years to come and treated as one of many threats to public health. Here at St Pius V, we are searching for the vision that will carry us forward as a vibrant, sustainable faith community, disciples inspired to proclaim and live Christian lives as a witness to the changing world. We invite you to become part of “Building a new Reality” here at St Pius V so that the presence of the living Christ is lived and proclaimed. —Fr. Tom Lynch, OP, Pastor

Tercer Domingo
de Cuaresma
20 de Marzo 2022

Elizabeth Barret Browning escribió: “La tierra está repleta de cielo, y todos los arbustos comunes arden con Dios, pero sólo el que ve, se quita los zapatos; el resto se sienta alrededor y arranca moras”. Hoy se nos desafía a experimentar el misterio de Dios con la imagen de Moisés y la zarza ardiente: un Dios que responde a todas las preguntas de forma sencilla y audaz. Como un padre exasperado que le dice a su hijo “Porque yo lo digo”, Dios le dice a Moisés “Yo soy el que soy” y “dile a los israelitas que YO SOY me ha enviado a ti”. Dios bien podría haber dicho: “Ahórrate todas tus preguntas y confía en mí. Deja de ser tan terco”. El pasaje de la primera carta a los Corintios nos recuerda lo que sucedió cuando los israelitas no escucharon el mensaje de Dios. Refunfuñaron y se quejaron porque el maná del cielo no era suficiente. Por último, un Jesús molesto llama a sus oyentes a que se arrepientan y utiliza una parábola difícil para enfatizar la transformación.

Una Cuaresma Continua

En la regla de san Benito, se dice a los monjes que su vida deber ser una “Cuaresma continua”. Al principio, esto puede sonar como algo negativo, difícil o totalmente deprimente. Más bien, es simplemente una llamada a estar abiertos y se-¡Bienvenido a la nueva realidad!

En los últimos dos años, nuestro mundo cambió; en la sociedad, en nuestro barrio, en nuestras familias- y en la Iglesia- con nuevas prácticas y maneras de vivir. La coronavirus ya es parte de nuestro futuro, y será una de las muchas amenazas a la salud global. Aquí en San Pío V, estamos buscando una visión que nos lleva adelante como una comunidad de fe que es vibrante y sostenible- discípulos inspirados en vivir nuestra fe y ser testigos a Cristo en medio de un mundo que cambia. Les invitamos ser parte en “Construir una nueva realidad” aquí en San Pío V a fin de que la presencia de Cristo vivo habita y se proclama.

—P. Tom Lynch, OP, Párroco

ly a call to be open and continue growing. In fact, one of the vows that Benedictines profess is Conversatio Morum, that is, “conversion of life.” In a nutshell, that is what Jesus is saying this week. We are being called to change our lives. Some people came to Jesus with gossip and a gruesome story about Pilate; Jesus challenged them with a couple of pointed questions, and then related the parable of the fig tree. To put it in context, usually figs blossom within two years, and then can be harvested twice a year. When a tree has been barren three years, it might be best just to remove it, but this is not the approach that Jesus suggested. Rather, the gardener in the parable chose to nurture the tree, fertilizing it with dung. He was not willing to give up on it.

Growth

There are times when we may feel our lives are covered in dung, and we lie dormant through a plethora of difficult and painful moments. But Jesus is calling us to use this time, to draw strength from it, to use the dung in our lives as fertilizer, to begin a slow and steady transformation to a new and better place, until we too can bear fruit. Growth is always a process, and we have to start somewhere. While there is always a call to repentance and conversion, we are blessed with a God who is loving enough and patient enough to wait for us to come to our senses, however long that may take. This Lent we are being called to life. We are called to repent. We are called to be nurtured and fertilized and take the time and effort to grow.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The Lord God appears to Moses and directs him to go and deliver the Israelites from Egypt (Exodus 3:1-8a, 13-15).

Psalm — The Lord is kind and merciful (Psalm 103).

Second Reading — We are not to grumble like the people with Moses in the desert (1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 10-12).

Gospel — If you do not repent, you will all perish (Luke 13:1-9).

uir creciendo. De hecho, uno de los votos que profesan los benedictinos es la Conversatio Morum, es decir, la “conversión de la vida”. En pocas palabras, eso es lo que Jesús está diciendo esta semana. Estamos llamados a cambiar nuestras vidas. Algunas personas se acercaron a Jesús con chismes y una historia espantosa sobre Pilato; Jesús los desafío con un par de preguntas punzantes, y luego relató la parábola de la higuera. Para ponerlo en contexto, normalmente los higos florecen en dos años, y luego se pueden cosechar dos veces al año.

Cuando un árbol lleva tres años estéril, lo mejor sería eliminarlo, pero este no es el enfoque que sugirió Jesús. En cambio, el jardinero de la parábola optó por nutrir el árbol, fertilizándolo con estiércol. No estaba dispuesto a abandonarlo.

Crecimiento

Hay momentos en los que podemos sentir que nuestras vidas están cubiertas de estiércol, y nos quedamos dormidos en una pléthora de momentos difíciles y dolorosos. Pero Jesús nos llama a utilizar este tiempo, a sacar fuerzas de él, a utilizar el estiércol de nuestras vidas como abono, a comenzar una transformación lenta y constante hacia un lugar nuevo y mejor, hasta que nosotros también podamos dar fruto. El crecimiento es siempre un proceso, y tenemos que empezar por algún sitio. Aunque siempre hay una llamada al arrepentimiento y a la conversión, hemos sido bendecidos con un Dios que es lo suficientemente amoroso y paciente como para esperar a que entremos en razón, por mucho tiempo que nos lleve. En esta Cuaresma se nos llama a la vida. Estamos llamados a arrepentirnos. Estamos llamados a ser alimentados y fertilizados y a tomarnos el tiempo y el esfuerzo para crecer.

A Message from Fr. Brian:

Here at St. Pius we have an on-going group of adults who are in the process of faith formation. Some of these people are preparing for Baptism while others are making a further commitment to engage more in their faith and to become more involved in the life of the parish. There are some who wish to be confirmed or make their First Communion.

Did you know that this group does not have a beginning or end date? You can join the group at any time and when the catechist and the adult learner come to an agreement a celebration of the sacrament they would like to receive will take place within the context of the parish at an appropriate time and date.

That means that if you or someone close to you have questions about living life as a Roman Catholic Christian you can join other like-minded people and explore the richness that our faith tradition offers.

We meet Monday evenings in the parish offices from 6:30 until 8pm. At present the sessions are mostly in English but often they become bilingual. If the need arose, we could begin another group for Spanish speakers to meet at another time and/or location. Please contact the parish office (312)226-6161 for more information.

Un mensaje de P. Brian:

Aquí en San Pío tenemos un grupo continuo de adultos que están en el proceso de formación en la fe. Algunas de estas personas se están preparando para el bautismo, mientras que otras se están comprometiendo a participar más en su fe y a involucrarse más en la vida de la parroquia. Hay algunos que desean confirmarse o hacer la primera comunión.

¿Sabías que este grupo no tiene fecha de inicio ni de finalización? Puedes unirte al grupo en cualquier momento y cuando el catequista y el alumno adulto se pongan de acuerdo se celebrará el sacramento que quieran recibir dentro del contexto de la parroquia en una fecha y hora adecuadas. Esto significa que si usted o alguien cercano a usted tiene preguntas sobre cómo vivir la vida como cristiano católico romano, puede unirse a otras personas con ideas afines y explorar la riqueza que ofrece nuestra tradición de fe.

Nos reunimos los lunes por la tarde en las oficinas de la parroquia, de 18:30 a 20:00 horas. Actualmente las sesiones son mayoritariamente en inglés, pero a menudo se convierten en bilingües. Si surgiera la necesidad, podríamos comenzar otro grupo para hispanohablantes que se reuniera en otro momento y/o lugar. Por favor, póngase en contacto con la oficina parroquial (312)226-6161 para más información.

La iglesia de San Pío V está abierta para oración individual de 10:00 am a 2:00 pm de lunes a viernes con seguridad.
Agradecemos al Santuario Dominicano de San Judas por hacer esto posible.
